Sport Clips Haircuts is Coming to West Alex in Alexandria, Virginia

(October 8, 2019) – Weingarten Realty (NYSE: WRI) announced today that Sport Clips Haircuts is leasing 1,189 SF at West Alex in Alexandria, Virginia.

West Alex is an upscale mixed-use, multi-building development at King Street and North Beauregard Street in Alexandria, VA. This center will have approximately 100,000 SF of retail anchored by an upscale 62,000 SF Harris Teeter grocery store. West Alex provides easy access to Alexandria/Arlington, as well as the Washington DC area to the north and Springfield/Fort Belvoir areas to the south.

In the early 1990s, Sport Clips founder and CEO, Gordon Logan, saw a need to create a place where guys could get a good haircut and feel comfortable. As a result, he opened the first Sport Clips Haircuts in the city of Austin, Texas in 1993. Expansion into the Houston and Dallas markets was soon thereafter. Within five years there were 50 salons operating. The hair salon at West Alex is planning to open in Q1 or early Q2 of 2020.
